

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH.

VOL. 10.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, APRIL 29, 1861.

NO. 145.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by
A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, is published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the West.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.
A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.
J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unexcelled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The Weekly will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.

Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

CAUTION TO DEBTORS.

FROM information received since the death of my late partner, C. G. Graham, I believe there are numerous outstanding debts due to the late firm, for which notes were given payable to "C. G. I therefore warn all persons thus indebted not to make payment to any person other than myself or my authorized agent. If they do, they will act in their wrong, and may be compelled to pay again to the surviving partner, who alone is authorized to collect said debts.

NOW READY.

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables, Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners in Kentucky.

By RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of

THE COMMONWEALTH. WAR NEWS!

New York, April 25.

Captain Andrew Talbot, of the United States Topographical Engineers, a native of Connecticut, has gone to Richmond to superintend the manufacture of arms to be used by the Government. The Union Committee have purchased sixteen rifled cannon of West Point for the use of our volunteers.

Engraved plates for bonds and bank notes for the Confederate States have been seized in two bank note engraving establishments, in Wall street, to-day.

The steamship Kedar has been chartered by Government; also the steamer Champion.

General Beauregard has not yet started, but rumor said 2,500 troops would leave that night to march on the Capital.

Citizens of Wilmington, N. C., had seized the steamer Georgia.

The Baltimore, Columbia, Harriet Lane and Cuyler were seen in the Chesapeake Bay.

It is stated that the sloop Sunshine was fired into off Yorktown, and in carrying sail to escape. The schooner Alice Ellis was seized.

Advices from Norfolk state that Captains Rogers and White were prisoners in the hands of the authorities.

New Orleans, April 25.

The steamer Cahawba, of the New Orleans and New York line, was seized at one o'clock this morning, but was subsequently released by order of the Montgomery Government, and sailed at six this evening.

Accounts from the upper parishes say that the military excitement is increasing, and volunteer companies are forming rapidly. The planters are offering money freely.

Rumors from an authentic source have reached Brazos that the Mexicans are getting up another Guerilla warfare against the citizens on the Rio Grande, above Brownsville. The town of Roma has been pillaged and burnt, and many American families have been murdered. Brownsville also has been threatened.

WHEELING, Va., April 25.

The Bell and Everett men of this Congressional District met in convention in this city to-day, and accepted the nomination of the Douglas Democrats, W. G. Brown, of Preston county, as their candidate for Congress. Resolutions were adopted approving of the Harrison county preamble and resolutions, which condemn the course of Eastern Virginia, and recommend all Northwestern counties to send delegates to a convention at Wheeling on the 13th of May. Strong Union speeches were made, and every thing was transacted with perfect unanimity.

The prevalent belief here is that there will be a division of the state.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.

General Lamon, from Washington, reports the following as Mr. Lincoln's reply to the Baltimore Commissioners, asking for peace, concluding thus: "Gentlemen, now go home; tell your people if they won't attack us, we won't attack them; if they attack us, we will retaliate severely. Troops must come to Washington, and that through Maryland, and they shall."

Gov. Hicks issued a proclamation convening the Legislature for to-morrow.

In consequence of the Federal troops at Annapolis, there is a probability of reopening travel to and from Washington, by order of General Scott.

It is reported that over two thousand southern troops arrived at Norfolk on Tuesday, destination secret.

Every endeavor has been used with the authorities of Baltimore to permit the reopening of telegraphic communication, but so far they have been unsuccessful.

Boston, April 25.

Officers of the frigate Niagara, just arrived from Japan, who are Southerners, have resigned. The oath of allegiance to the United States was administered anew to the officers and crew of the Niagara, and all but four subscribed to it. Their names will be stricken from the roll.

DETROIT, April 25.

The Straits of Mackinac are open. The propeller Prairie Star arrived this morning from Chicago, the first boat through. The Governor has called an extra session of the Legislature to meet May 7. Five regiments have been offered to the Governor and new ones are organizing.

HARRISBURG, April 25.

Passengers arrived here by the Northern Central road all in quiet in Baltimore—all the wholesale houses closed—all clerks over fourteen years of age were required to enlist; many were leaving the city in consequence. Five cars arrived at Chambersburg, filled with families flying from Baltimore. Baltimore money is ten per cent. below par there, and Pennsylvania money is being exchanged for gold and silver.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.

The latest news from Annapolis states that the road is open to Washington.

There is no confirmation of a reported attack on Fort Pickens, but rumors continue to receive credence. The Portsmouth (Va.) Transcript of Tuesday says "dispatches received last night say Fort Pickens was taken by the Southern troops, with a loss of 2,500 men."

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.

The schooner Lucas was fired into in Chesapeake Bay by two schooners, which had no colors, but escaped.

A gentleman who passed through Wilmington, N. C., on Saturday, learned from the railroad conductor that arrangements were being made to convey troops from Charleston to Richmond; 2,000 were then on the way.

New York, April 25.

A gentleman from Washington, via Relay House and Wheeling, reports that the Secessionists have planted a battery of four guns at Harper's Ferry, commanding the bridge. Trains are stopped and examined, and the road for a mile was lined with soldiers. At Wheeling a strong Union feeling prevailed. 2,500 men were under arms.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25.

Governor Morton delivered his message to the Legislature this afternoon. He recommends the appropriation of $1,000,000 for the purpose of purchasing arms and munitions of war, and for the organization of such portion of the militia as may be deemed necessary for the present emergency.

He recommends the passage of a law defining and punishing treason against the State.

In alluding to the present trouble, he says we should approach the contest, not as partisans, but as patriots who cast aside every selfish consideration when danger threatens our country. The struggle is one in which we enter with the deepest reluctance. If the people of the seceding States put themselves in the attitude of public enemies, they must bear the responsibility.

To our sister State, Kentucky, we turn with hope and affection. I appeal to her by the ties of common kindred to maintain the Constitution and the Union.

LOUISVILLE, April 25.

A proposition has been made by the Governor of Kentucky to the Governor of Ohio that the Governors of the Border States propose to the United States Government to become arbitrators between the contending parties in the present difficulties.

NASHVILLE, April 25.

The Legislature convened, and has been in secret session. Reporters have been excluded. The contents of the Governor's message are unknown.

NOW AND THEN.—The Richmond Enquirer is now one of the most rabid of the ultra secession journals. In 1814 it was conducted by Mr. T. Ritchie, and in speaking of the Hartford Convention it expressed the following sound opinions:

The Union is in Danger.—Turn to the Convention of Hartford and learn to tremble at the madness of its authors. How far will such madmen advance? Though they may conceal from you the project of disunion, though a few of them may have concealed it from themselves, yet who will pretend to set bounds to the rage of disaffection? One false step after another may lead them to resistance to the laws, to a treasonable neutrality, to a war against the Government of the United States. In truth, the first act of resistance to the law is treason to the United States. Are you ready for this state of things? Will you support the men who would plunge you into this ruin?

No man, no association of men, no State or set of States has a right to withdraw itself from this Union of its own accord. The same power which knit us together can only unknit. The same formality which forged the links of the Union is necessary to dissolve it. The majority of States which form the Union must consent to the withdrawal of any one branch of it. Until that consent has been obtained, any attempt to dissolve the Union, or obstruct the efficiency of its constitutional laws, is treason—treason to all intents and purposes. Any other doctrine, such as that which has been lately held forth by the Federal Republican, that any one State may withdraw itself from the Union, is an abominable heresy—which strips its author of every possible pretension to the name or character of a Federalist.

We call, therefore, upon the Government of the Union to exert its energies when the season shall demand it, and seize the first traitor who shall spring out of the hot bed of the Convention of Hartford. This illustrious Union which has been cemented by the blood of our forefathers, the pride of America and the wonder of the world, must not be tamely sacrificed to the heated brains or the aspiring hearts of a few malcontents. The Union must be saved when any one shall dare to assail it.

Countrymen of the East! We call upon you to keep a vigilant eye upon those wretched men who would plunge us into civil war and inevitable disgrace. Whatever may be the temporary calamities which may assail us, let us swear upon the altar of our country to save the Union.

We have been furnished with the following extracts of a letter from a citizen of Texas to his brother in Louisville, and for whose credibility we can vouch:

"I have owing to me about $1700, on as good men as are in the country. I have one hundred and twenty-five head of cattle and eighteen hundred acres of land, and with all of this, I cannot raise one dollar for necessities. If we have a failure in the wheat crop, people will actually starve."

"It is true that there is wheat now in the country, but the holders of it will not let it go without money, which it is impossible to get."

"Anarchy, misery and ruin reign supreme in Texas. All law and order are at an end, and each man has to carry his revolver and knife every time he steps out of his house, as such a course is his only protection."

"A few weeks ago, a valuable tract of land of 640 acres was sold at Sheriff's sale at thirteen cents an acre. One year ago it would have brought six dollars an acre."

"Some time since I refused eight dollars an acre for a tract of one hundred and fifty-seven acres. Two days ago I offered it at two dollars an acre to the same man who had offered me the eight dollars, but he refused to buy it at any price."

The letter is dated March 29, 1861.

THE CALL FOR TROOPS.—The National Intelligencer of the 18th inst. says:

"After the several levies of the respective States shall have been raised and mustered into the service of the United States it may be that no occasion will arise for such operations as to call for their active employment. They will simply be in readiness to obey the summons of the Government in case of any attack, actual or meditated upon the Federal Capital or other property of the Union. The idea that they are to be employed for the 'subjugation of the South' is simply preposterous, for no such 'subjugation' is possible by any number of troops, and the purpose of 'invasion' is expressly disclaimed by the Administration. The very fact, therefore, that no existing emergency can demand the intervention of 75,000 men, especially when taken in connection with the short period for which they are enlisted, (three months) serves to show that they have been summoned in prospect of contingent eventualities, which may never arise, if only the people of the Border Slaveholding States shall determine to exert their potential influence in favor of the Union and of the preservation of the public peace."

We clip the following paragraph from the Cincinnati Commercial:

To KENTUCKY.—There is one fact which we wish every Kentuckian could be brought to understand. It is that the warlike preparations made here and at other points in the northwest do not contemplate the possibility of aggression toward Kentucky. The state of the country is so portentous that every citizen and every city seems bound to take measures for self-protection. Louisville is preparing to defend herself. So is Cincinnati. The motive here as at Louisville, is that instinctive one of self-preservation. The six thousand men who are nightly drilling in this city have no views of acting aggressively. They would defend their homes and the flag of their country. Certainly Kentucky as a State has no attack to make upon either.

An Arkansas Farewell.

"Perimmons, Jr., in the Spirit of the Times, gives an account of the parting of Old Ben Winnie of Arkansas, with his son Joe, who was leaving home for business in Texas. The old man was accustomed to deal in euchre, and his discourse is enlivened by similes, that the smoking passengers on some of our longest local railroads will understand. Thus the story runs:

In course of time Uncle Winnie's eldest son, a boy of some eighteen years of age, was most unexpectedly invited to what was then the new County of Texas. A distant relative, who desired an assistant, offered great inducements, and Winnie Junior, a chip of the old block, and a real honor to Arkansas, made his preparations for the first time to leave home. His mother treated the thing a good deal as mothers do, and filled up the time before his departure with crying, packing up a trunk, and making "cake fixins."

Old Winnie took a most grasping and philosophical view of the matter. He remarked that life was a pack of cards, and that your success depended upon how they were dealt out. He said he knew fellows who never could get above a four spot, and never enough of them to make more nor a pair. He'd knowed others, again, who always had their hands full of queens and aces; and even if the deal runs low, they would get two pairs, or three deuces, that way even better in this case than "pieters."

In short, Uncle Winnie said some men had luck; play as they would, they couldn't in fact lose winning, whether they set down with green ones, or took a shy at "the tiger."

At last the "boy" was about to take his departure; his mother gave him her last kiss, and her most fervent blessing, and Uncle Winnie accompanied him to the wagon that was to take him to the steamboat landing. The moment of leaving came; he had held up wonderfully all through the preliminaries, but now his heart was too full, and he broke out as follows:

"Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You're going to throw me out of the game and go it alone. The odds is agin you, Bob, but remember always that industry and perseverance are the winning cards; they are the 'boppers.'"

"Book learning and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like small trumps, but you must have the boppers to back 'em, else they aint worth shucks. If luck runs agin you pretty strong, don't cave in and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold your head up and make 'em believe you're flush of trumps; then they won't play so hard agin you."

"I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held a weak hand, they'd buck agin you strong. So when you're sorter weak, keep on a bold front, but play cautious; be satisfied with a pint. Many's the hand I've seen euchred 'cause they played for too much."

"Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; don't let 'em 'nig' on you; recollect the game lays as much with the head as with the hands. Be temperate; never get drunk, for then, no matter how good your hand you won't know how to play it; both boppers and the ace won't save you, for there's sartain to be a 'misdeal' or something wrong. And another thing, Bob, (this was spoken in a low tone and in Bob's ear) don't go too much on the women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have of 'em the worse for you; you might have three or four trump. I don't say 'discard' 'em all; if you get hold of one that's a trump, it'll all good and that's sartain to be one out of four."

"And above all, Bob, be honest; never take a man's trick word don't belong to you; nor 'slip cards,' nor 'nig,' for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case there's no fun in the game; it's a regular 'cut throat.' So now, Bob, farewell; remember what I tell you, and you'll be sure to win, and if you don't, serves you right to get skunked!"

Old Winnie's feelings now overcame him, and with tears in his eyes, he concluded: "Be good by agin, Bob, and God bless you! Be a man, and do honor to your native State, and never be so mean as to run for the Legislature, or try to get into Congress; to do either is worse than keeping a sweat-cloth at a meeting, or thimble-rigger at a negro-convention."

Here the old man fell upon Bob's neck; the two wept together and parted.

Horror of Civil War.

To those who are unfamiliar with the history of civil wars, and are now, perhaps, rejoicing at the prospects of a "brush," we would commend the following. It will give them a pretty correct idea of what we may surely expect, unless reason rules the day:

As a warning to the American people at this time, they should read the history of the French Revolution, and contemplate its horrible results. The extent to which blood was shed during its continuance will hardly be credited by the present age, but it is correctly stated that the number of victims reached 1,223,351. Of this number 18,602 were guillotined by the order of the Revolutionary Tribunals; 32,000 were victims under Carrier at Nantes; 32,000 at Lyons; 3,400 women died of premature child-birth; 348 in child-birth from grief; and there were slain, during the war in La Vendee, 300,000 men, 15,000 women, and 22,000 children. In this enumeration are not comprehended the massacre at Versailles, at the Abbey, the Carmes, and other prisons, on the 2d of September; the victims shot at Toulon and Marseilles, or the persons slain in the little town of Bedon, of which the whole population perished.

This is but the history, embracing a very brief period, of a single nation. If the records of all other nations that have foolishly warred with each other, were written and compressed within a narrow compass, what consternation and horror would be excited! Reckless men, though not truly brave, may look these dangers in the face, but let them give a passing thought to the thousands of innocent, helpless ones that must be involved in the horrid catastrophe.

The secession party in Kentucky have withdrawn their ticket for the Border State Convention. The apology is, that there is no use for it now; that no such Convention will be held, &c. On the contrary, such a Convention will be held. It is only a question of time; and a short time at that. There is a better reason for the withdrawal of this ticket. It can't be elected. Inasmuch as they profess to think Kentucky is ready to secede, they might give some evidence of it by electing their ticket. However, we commend the act, whatever the reason. Guthrie, Crittenden & Co. can be trusted with the interests of Kentucky.

HOW IT CAME ABOUT.

She sat in the shade of the portico, Busy with some sweet task; The Spanish eyes, and the forehead low, Hid by the airy mask. Of the dusky hair, that had rippled down As she sprang o'er the flowery bed— In sooth she had purposed to frame a frown But she framed a smile instead!

He took her hand in that certain way, More eloquent than words. No sound fell into the silent day, Save the chirp of the orchard birds; He work lay close by her side unsung, And the book on her knee unread— In sooth she had purposed to lose her hand, But he caught the other instead!

And when with the wealth of the rosy June The bees to their hives had got, Healed through the lull of the sleepy noon, And whispered—his own sweet what! She away from his earnest eyes, and low She bowed her blushing head— In sooth she had purposed to say "No, no!" But she murmured "Yes" instead.

Grand Disappointment.

I thought her mine; I thought the world Shone forth with joy for me; I didn't dream in after years Its folly I should see.

But so it proved. I sought her hand— (I really thought I'd get her)— But oh! alas! her answer came—"Her mother would let her!"

Our junior says he "intends to stay at home with the gal who loves him much, instead of running round the country after bullet's dainty touch." He is a cotton head of Jackson predilections and will defend the breast works of cottondom at the point of the corset. Who wouldn't be a coward and a serf!—Georgetown Gazette.

POST OFFICE REMOVED.—The Post Office has been removed from Main street to the room adjoining W. A. Gaines' hardware store, on St. Clair street.

Synopsis of the News by Telegraph:

The reports of armed opposition to the marching of northern troops from Annapolis to Washington is denied.

Baltimore is to be blockaded. Southern troops are hourly expected on Georgetown Heights.

The citizens of Baltimore purpose firing on northern troops from the windows and tops of the houses. Such an act, it is thought, will end in the destruction of the city by fire.

Ex-President Buchanan has fled to Canada.

Beauregard is now represented to be awaiting an attack at Charleston.

The Gen. Johnston referred to in the dispatches as having been mobbed at Lynchburg is most probably Andrew Johnston, Senator from Tennessee.

The States and Union at Washington has suspended on account of threats made by the Unionists.

News from the troops marching continues to come in. Gov. Letcher prohibits the exportation of provisions North.

Fortress Monroe fired into a tug-boat, and captured an artillery belonging to the seizers.

The dispatches contain a computation of Virginia troops in the field.

Jeff. Davis has not nor will he issue letters of marque at present.

Washington is declared by Gen. Scott to be perfectly safe from present attack.

It is thought that there will be 25,000 southern troops at Richmond shortly.

The Government is seizing all articles of commerce belonging to the seceded States.

The conservative element is thought to be predominating at Baltimore. There seems to be no desire to interfere with or oppose northern troops marching to Washington.

Annapolis is to be fortified.

The commander at Fort Caswell has given notice that no vessels will be allowed to pass that point for sea.

Missouri is likely to furnish her full quota of troops.

The news from Texas and Mexico is exciting. A change in the Ministry of Mexico has taken place. The Mexicans under Cortinas had made a descent on Texas.

The steamer C. E. Killman was captured by the troops at Cairo.

A stampede of slaves has taken place in Maryland.

Now and Then.

We have before us a copy of the Kentucky Campaign, edited by the Editors of the Kentucky Statesman and Frankfort Yeoman, dated August 29, 1860. From an article headed, "False charges of the opposition against Mr. Breckinridge," we clip the following:

The charge of disunion sentiment or purpose against Mr. Breckinridge is of like character and kindred nature with those above disposed of. It is unsustained by proof or circumstance. A more malignant falsehood could not be uttered against him than the allegation that he ever entertained a feeling of hostility to the Union, or that he holds any other sentiment than that of devotion to the Union. We go further to meet the charge here made, and denounce as wholly false the assertion that Mr. Breckinridge is influenced by, in co-operation with, or friendly to any man, set of men, or movement looking to disunion. We have the best authority for this statement of facts.

The pious reader will shudder over the ferocious polysyllables of this brace of Colonels who went "further to meet the charge," "and denounce it as wholly false." But we trust that the pious reader will recover himself when he reflects that both of the indignant editors of the Kentucky Campaign of the 29th of August, 1860, are now ardent and immediate secessionists. They have breakfasted, dined, supped, and slept upon their own individual denunciations of the "wholly false" style, and are now openly and avowedly exactly what we believed they were on the 29th day of August, in the year of disgrace 1860.

An editorial in this same "Campaign" is also instructive and attractive. We quote: "It is the practice of those who wrongfully charge the Democratic party with entertaining disunion sentiments and designs, when no taint or trace of the kind appears either in their platform, or in the loyal and glorious antecedents of our candidates, to cross-examine our speakers, with an astuteness creditable alone to a pettifogger who had never got beyond a five-dollar fee, to ascertain, we suppose, whether or not the Democracy rely as a last remedy for infractions of the Constitution upon the violent secession from the Federal Union. There is nothing in our State or Federal platform to warrant the foul suspicion, come from what quarter it may, that the Kentucky Democracy cherish or countenance any feeling akin to disunionism. The speeches and writings of our noble standard-bearers, their actions in war and peace, upon the battle-field and in the council chamber—all give the lie in broadest terms to the slanderous imputation that any other than loyal hearts beat in their patriotic bosoms. WE DO NOT HOLD A DISSOLUTION OF THE UNION TO BE A SUITABLE REMEDY FOR ANY OF THE EVILS THAT DO NOW OR ARE LIKELY HEREAFTER TO AFFLICT US FROM THE FANATICISM AND TREASON ENGENDERED BY DEMAGOGUERY IN THE NON-SLAVEHOLDING STATES. WE INTEND TO GIVE OUR ENEMIES NO SUCH ADVANTAGE. WE DO NOT INTEND TO TEAR DOWN THE GOOD OLD BUILDING ERECTED BY OUR FATHERS' HANDS, THAT HAS SHELTERED US SO LONG AND SO WELL, IN RAIN AND STORM, AND SHEDDING BLOOD, BECAUSE A JOINT OCCUPANT OF THE MANSION PROPOSES TO INFRINGE ON OUR RIGHTS, AND OCCUPY MORE ROOM THAN HE IS JUSTLY ENTITLED TO. FAR FROM IT. THESE ARE OUR INDIVIDUAL SENTIMENTS, AND WE HAVE REASON TO BELIEVE THEY COVER THE VIEWS OF OUR PARTY.

Those "individual views," it will be perceived, are at once sophomoric, insolent, ignorant, and silly. The two military gentlemen, who then enunciated them with such a parade of outraged patriotism, have since concluded to tear down the old building, (which of course was theirs,) and establish an out-house, pompously designated as a Southern Confederacy.

We happen to be among those presumptions and unhappy individuals who "charged" the Breckinridge party of the 29th of August, 1860, with entertaining disunion sentiments. At the time we were suitably denounced by the miscellaneous Colonels and fuglemen of the precious Union-loving party. Remorse of conscience, (in consequence of charging Breckinridge with entertaining disunion views,) has not preyed upon our vitals to any great extent. We still live, and live to see the fulfillment to the very letter of what we predicted in the canvass of 1860, and what the Secessionists of to-day then denied with such terrible emphasis.

We intended to make some comments, but we don't think any are needed.

LOST!!

STRAYED OR STOLEN!

A GOVERNOR!

$20,000 Reward in Southern Confederacy Bonds!!

We have lost our amiable Governor. He has not been in Frankfort for lo these many days. Kind friends are constantly waiting to see him, and inquiring for him. Telegraphic dispatches are accumulating for his inspection. We fear that he has been foully dealt with. Mayhap, the Southern Confederacy has seized and occupied him. It is possible that Yancey has beguiled him hence by those "silver tones" which pleaded so eloquently for the Union last September. We are in tears.

If this should meet the eyes of our beloved Governor, we say to him, in the words of the psalmist: You are going far away, far away from your Kentucky; there's no one left to govern us, and you too may forget; but our hearts will be with you, wherever you retire; can you look us in the face, and say the same Beriah? Down in the South Ceded, with the bully blue cockade, oh! we fear that you'll forget all the promises you made. Or when Yancey leads the way, you'll be madly rushing on, never thinking if they kill you that our happiness is gone. Oh! if we were Queen of France, or still better, Pope of Rome, we'd have no Governor's abroad, but keep them all at home. Have Kentucky be at peace, when fanatics show their spite, and let the devils who made the fuss be the only ones to fight.

THE TROOPS AT CAIRO.—The St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday, says advice from Cairo state that the people of that little city were taken all aback at the arrival of the troops by the Illinois Central Railroad. The troops took possession of the point at the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and commenced planting their batteries. A detachment of two or three hundred men were sent up the railroad track a few miles to protect the bridges which were threatened by some of the populace. There is yet no positive information in reference to the designs of the Government in occupying this point with so large a command. Shippers in St. Louis Wednesday morning held off, but upon advice to the evening papers that Gov. Yates had given no instructions to seize shipments, the Memphis and Nashville packets were loaded down to the guards and hurriedly set out. The insurance companies are charging double rates.

Border State Convention.

The disunionists have withdrawn their ticket for delegates for the Border State Convention. Such a course was doubtless best for them, and economical of the feelings of their candidates. They canvassed the State just enough to ascertain how odious they were with the people. They saw nothing but certain defeat staring them in the face, and they retreated while there was time.

J. R. Barrick, Esq., in a letter addressed to the editors of the Louisville Democrat, declines to be a candidate for State Treasurer.

See the organization of the Home Guard, which is published in another column.

Home Guards.

The citizens of Frankfort and vicinity who have enrolled themselves into a military organization, called the Home Guards, Company A, do hereby adopted the following declaration of their purpose:

To aid in the preservation of peace, maintenance of law and order, and of perfect respect for the rights of property and person in this immediate community.

To aid in suppressing all irregular or unauthorized assemblies or associations, having for their object any interference with the rights of person or property, and to resist all mob violence, outbreaks, or insurrections against law and order; and to protect their homes and families against the dangers which threaten in times of commotion like the present.

The members of the company pledge their sacred honor that they will abstain from all violence or lawlessness, and that they will stand by each other in upholding these purposes; and that the arms placed in their hands shall not be used for any purpose contrary to these objects or for any revolutionary proceeding.

In testimony of their determination to abide by these and all rules and regulations adopted by the company, to promote the objects of the organization, and of their obligation to obey their officers, the members of the company are hereby required to subscribe their names to this paper.

All true Union men will vote for Bob King for County Judge.

From the Harrodsburg Press, one of the best and ablest edited Union papers in the State, we clip the following paragraphs:

The war has actually begun. Designing politicians have brought it upon the country. We regret the necessity that has caused such a calamity to befall our country. But we trust that the honor, dignity and character of the Federal Government will be sustained. God protect the innocent.

A powerful effort is being made by the Secessionists to hurry Kentucky out of the Union. Men of Kentucky—you who love your country—we beg you to stand firm. Jeff. Davis is not your President—the Cotton Confederacy is not your Government. Kentuckians owe no allegiance to Jeff. Davis. Every consideration of duty, interest and patriotism demand that Kentuckians shall stand firm and true to the Federal Government.

Speaking of the exciting state of affairs, the editor of the Press says: Kentucky we trust will stand upon her native dignity, and exert all of her influence to mediate for peace. The very contemplation of civil war strikes every reflecting mind with horror. Yet, Kentucky has her duties to perform and her responsibilities upon her; Kentucky must soon take a firm and decided position. We have no ground of confidence in the wisdom and prudence of her people, and in their decision we shall acquiesce, whether cheerfully or otherwise.

LIFE AT PENSACOLA.—A letter from a military man to his friend in Atlanta, Ga., gives a stirring picture of things at Pensacola. He says: "Times are equally here. We have to sleep on our arms every night—Fort Pickens has about 2,500 troops within her walls. There are five war steamers lying back of the Island. We are now engaged in throwing up a sand battery, to be called the 'Gate City Battery.' Soldiering is a hard life. Hard work—fat bacon and hard crackers. My hands are blistered badly. No time to fish yet. Plenty oysters at forty cents a hundred. Martial law was declared here to-day, and everybody notified to take up arms immediately or leave.—Nothing to drink here at all!"

CIRCUS.—Robinson & Lake's great Southern Menagerie and Circus will be here on Wednesday, May 1st. This is one of the most extensive exhibitions now traveling, and those who would forget for a moment, in a hearty laugh, the troubles of the country, can avail themselves of this opportunity to witness the performances of the knights of the saw-dust.

FRUITS OF SECESSION.—Virginia currency has depreciated eighty per cent.; Maryland currency is worthless. Should Kentucky secede, she will be in the same category.

Proclamation by the Governor.

Recent events are of so startling a character as to render it imperative necessary that the Legislature of Kentucky be again convened in extraordinary session. It is now apparent that the most energetic measures are being resorted to by the Government at Washington to prosecute a war upon an extended scale with the seceded States. Already large sums of money and supplies of men are being raised in the Northern States for that purpose. The tread of armies is the response which is being made to the measures of pacification which are being discussed before our people, whilst up to this moment we are comparatively in a defenseless attitude.

Whatever else should be done, it is, in my judgment, the duty of Kentucky, without delay, to place herself in a complete position for defense. The causes for apprehension are now certainly grave enough to impel every Kentuckian to demand that this be done, and to require of the Legislature of the State such additional action as may be necessary for the general welfare. To this end, I now call upon the members of the General Assembly to convene at the Capitol, in Frankfort, on the 6TH DAY OF MAY, 1861.

INTESTIMONY WHEREOF,
I, Beriah Magoffin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at the city of Frankfort, the 24th day of April, 1861, and in the 69th year of the Commonwealth.

B. MAGOFFIN.

By the Governor:
Thos. B. Monroe, Jr., Sec'y of State.
By Jas. W. Tate, Assistant Sec'y.

Vote for Ed. Keenon for Major.

THANKS.—We were complimented by a serenade by Italy's Cornet Band, on Thursday night. We risk nothing in saying that this is now one of the best bands in the State. Their execution of the most difficult pieces of music, (considering the short time they have been organized,) is truly wonderful. Gentlemen, we thank you, and shall treat to the oysters "all around" just as soon as we sell our land in Texas.

The Louisville Journal says it is understood that Governor Magoffin has made a proposition to the Governors of the Border States to hold a conference, which it is hoped will agree upon such terms of compromise as will be accepted by the two sections of the country.

The Observer and Reporter says: We understand that Moses B. Morrison, of this city, has been appointed a Mail Agent between Lexington and Louisville.

Dr. Jas. Messick, of Nicholasville, has been appointed a Mail Agent between Lexington and Covington.

Col. Ben. Hardin Helm, of Louisville, has been appointed Paymaster in the U. S. Army, by President Lincoln. Mr. Helm is a son of ex-Governor John L. Helm, and his wife is a half-sister of the wife of Mr. Lincoln.

CORRECTION.—We were misinformed in regard to the troops destined for the service of the Confederate States carrying off artillery and small arms with them upon the Nashville railroad. The munitions spoken of went on the same train, but were consigned to a Kentucky town.—Low Jour.

The Georgetown Journal says the following card from Dr. D. R. Campbell, President of Georgetown College, will explain the cause of the suspension of the College, a fact which has been received with universal regret by our citizens:

A CARD.
SUSPENSION OF GEORGETOWN COLLEGE.
The students have become so much excited by passing events as to be entirely disqualified for study and good order, and the trustees of the College have deemed it best to dismiss them to their homes, where they will be under the influence of their parents. The College will re-open on the 1st Monday of September next.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,

TAKE pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of pictures they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

He also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this Gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.
